

What equipment to use

An open blade disposable razor is used for outline shaving. Always use a new blade on each client. Health regulations require you to throw away the blade into an approved sharps container (as per Australian standards) after each use. The diagram below shows you the parts of the razor.

Open Blade Disposable Razor